

Marion Grace

Christian Author, Speaker & Encourager

God has a thousand ways to set you free! Marion shares with power and relatability the life-changing principles and sometimes overlooked “gems” in God’s Word that you can apply now to see real change in your real-life situation.

About Marion

Marion’s goal is to equip you to live free, no matter what life throws your way, and to live in the outrageous love and peace of God.

Stage four cancer, depression, and a divorce—all in a short amount of time. Marion Grace’s writing and ministry began in response to the amazing love and power that God showed her while going through some of life’s most severe trials.

Marion stands today as a living, breathing miracle and testimony of that overcoming love, shown to her in her worst spiritual state. After years of disappointment, depression, and bitterness leading to divorce, then a terminal cancer diagnosis, Marion shares her story of victory. Her boast is not in any special training or many years in church, but in being an ordinary Christian just like you, who has discovered the unrelenting, passionate, and indescribable love of God.

Through the unique, transparent perspective in her books and her speaking, Marion shares about reaching deep inside amid life’s crippling obstacles to bring back everything God had ever placed inside her. Hers is a story of going from shame to value, struggle to victory, death sentence to peace and life.

Always personal, real, honest, raw, and practical, Marion will speak to your heart and your situation.

Marion’s Ministry

Many of God’s people today feel crushed by problems and issues, desperate to overcome. Help may be hard to find, because some of these issues are “untouchable” in religious circles: uncomfortable, embarrassing, or just too difficult to address.

Many struggle through every day, hiding what is tearing them apart inside, fearing judgment, condemnation, or feeling inferior. Marion found this for herself: some fight these battles alone, angry, disappointed, running in circles with no results. We look up to God crying, “Why, God, why?”

Life is full of trials and can seem unfair, but the fact is, we were never meant to go through any of it alone. Jesus defeated Satan once and for all in His death and resurrection, making him a laughingstock with no power over us. Victory is in the trial’s powerlessness to move you off your faith, get you sidetracked, or bring you down.

Marion confronts head-on some of these challenging issues and offences, drawing from her own difficult experiences and from the tools she used to become more than a conqueror and joyfully thrive. Her ministry tools are relatable, with understandable illustrations, and a point of contact that will bring you tangible compassion and achievable answers.

Lift your head, my friend, and get ready to soar with the eagles! It is never too late.

Marion Grace is a strong warrior in the Kingdom of God. I was introduced to her through mutual friends during my own battle with bone marrow cancer. Since she had already gone through it with wonderful victory, she was a beacon to me through her prayers and encouragement during my journey to recovery and healing. Her first book, Your Greatest Life: Overcoming Depression, Divorce, and Critical Illness, along with her testimony, helped me greatly. The Bible tells us in Revelation 19:10 that the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy, and I received this as my outcome.

Her second book, Drop Your Sword: Letting God Fight Your Battles, is a word you must have in your repertoire ... With this tool, you will be more firmly established in His Word and experience victory in your life in whatever area you are struggling. God is good and He is good all the time.

Marion’s writing is like a force of nature—a whirlwind blowing away all the old dead leaves to make room for new growth.
